I hereby apply for the following (select all that apply)

Large Booth

50m² reserved for galleries that present ambitious, international programs and propose an intriguing solo or dual artist presentation. Booth fees for this section are 10 000 €.

Non-Profit Booth

25m² spaces reserved for artist-run or curator led off-site projects and non-profit institutions with a compelling solo or dual-artist presentation. We welcome experimental proposals that focus on the work of emerging artists or under-recognized figures. Booth fees for this section are 6 000 €.

Sculpture Project

New to June is a 400m² indoor sculpture zone. Applications for June Art Fair's "Indoor Sculpture Garden" can be submitted independently of having a booth structure. The allocated area per project for this section is based on requirements for the project, granted up to 25m². Fees for participating in this section are 4 000–6 000 €, depending on size.

Applications must be accompanied by proof of a 100 € application fee paid to the following account:

Account name: June IVS

IBAN: BE77 9670 5293 0842

SWIFT / BIC: TRWIBEB1XXX

Account Address: Frederiksholms Kanal 28A, 1220 Copenhagen, Denmark

Please make sure that all fees are included in the payment. To complete this payment with low fees, we recommend using Wise. We can also accept credit card payments via Paypal. Contact the fair for these details.

Upon acceptance, a 500 € registration fee will be invoiced in order to guarantee placement. In the event that the fair is cancelled due to Covid-19 restrictions this amount will be refunded. In other circumstances it is non-refundable.

Total booth fees must be paid by July 15. If the fair is cancelled for any reason, including Covid-19 restrictions, all fees will be refunded. This does not extend to the 100 € application fee however, which will be retained to cover costs.
